O Lord, support us all the day long, of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and our work is done. Then in thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Noon-Day Services Wednesday and Friday throughout the year, 12.30-12.55 P. M.

The custom of Lenten Noonday Services began in St. Stephen's Church. We esteem it a great privilege to minister to so many people and to bring to Philadelphia so many prophetic preachers. The Congregation is urged to join heartily in the singing, and to co-operate with our endeavor to make these services restful, unhurried and reverent. Let us make the singing of the hymns devotional.

After Easter the regular Wednesday and Friday noonday services will be resumed.

Lectures will be held every Friday at 8 P. M., in the Community House, beginning March 1st and ending April 5th.

The following facts about this church and its program may be of interest to downtown Philadelphians or those who are downtown during the day:

1. This Church is Open Daily to those of any faith who seek a place for prayer or meditation, who want to get away from the bustle of busy city life for five minutes or an hour. If you seek peace of mind, a place to say your prayer, solace of soul or the silence where you can contemplate or fight out battles—use our church.
 2. Organ Recital on Thursdays. Every Thursday from 12:00 to 12:25 Dr. H. Alexander Matthews is at the console.
 3. Sunday Morning Broadcast (Through Station WFIL—Dial 560). Notice the change in station. This service is electrically transcribed and includes Dr. Franks' sermon and part of the service of the previous Sunday. The hour is 9:30 to 10:05.
 4. Pageant on Palm Sunday Evening. At 8 o'clock the young people of St. Stephen's Church will present the premier of "A Pageant of Easter." This beautiful pageant was compiled by Edna Josephine Lillich and the music by H. Alexander Matthews. Pageantry is part of our emphasis and it is given under the skilled direction of the compilers.
 5. Noon-Day Preaching During Advent. These daily services are held from 12:30 to 12:55 and are sponsored by the Philadelphia Federation of Churches.
 6. A Service is Held Every Wednesday throughout the year from 12:30 to 12:55.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE?

TO HELP

men and women of any denomination to return to faith in Jesus Christ.

TO SUPPLY

to people who are discouraged, broken, lacking in energy, a new sense of power that is not of this world and a conviction that they can, after all, achieve their cherished hopes.

TO GIVE

direction to the men and women of today who have no faith.

TO IMPART

poise in the midst of pressure—a central purpose to your life—the ability to handle life's every-day problems with courage; in short, abundant life.

THE VERY REV. N. R. HIGH MOOR, D.D.
Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dean Moor needs no introduction to Philadelphia Lenten congregations. From the Garrick Theater Services of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to the present time he has a record of Lenten preaching of some twenty-five years in Phila. Born in Toledo, Ohio, Dean Moor schooled at Howe Military Academy and Detroit University School. He received the B.L. degree from Kenyon College in 1916 and his M.A. in 1918. He was awarded his Doctor of Divinity from Bexley Hall Seminary in 1932. After his ordination in 1918 he became assistant at St. Paul's Church, Cleveland, Ohio, and in 1919 he became Rector of Grace Church, Sandusky, Ohio, where he stayed until 1925. He had a notable ministry in Atlanta, Georgia from 1925 to 1931 as Rector of St. Luke's Church. For the past twenty-five years, as Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Pittsburgh, Dean Moor has demonstrated great ability as an organizer and administrator. Through his development of special services in the Cathedral he has done a great deal to give the Cathedral a prominent place in the religious life of the Community. He is in great demand as a speaker at community gatherings.
